Daniel F. Prescott

Esteemed Elba Citizen Died Friday Night

Daniel F. Prescott, aged 64 years, prominent business man and one of the city's most highly esteemed citizens, passed away at his home late Friday night following an illness of several months. Although his death was not unexpected, it brings deep sorrow to relatives and countless friends. Mr. Prescott, a lifelong resident of Elba, was a son of the late Mr. and Mrs. L. Prescott, pioneer residents of the county. His father served Coffee as Sheriff and was prominently identified with the business life of the city.

Mr. Prescott for many years operated a market and grocery store in Elba. The business was liquidated only a few months ago on account of his health. He was a member of the Baptist Church and a regular attendant at its services as long as his health permitted.

Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Edna Prescott; three sons: Joe Frank Prescott, Elba; Pfc. Cecil Prescott, now stationed at Detroit, Mich.; and Fred Prescott, Montgomery; a brother, G. M. Prescott, Elba; a sister, Mrs. Debbie Compton, Elba; two grandchildren, Betty Jo Prescott and Thomas Glenn Prescott, both of Elba. A number of nieces, nephews and other relatives also survive.

Funeral services were held at Elba Baptist Church Monday afternoon at four o'clock, with Rev. M. P. officiating. Assisting were Rev. J. A. Jones and Judge J. A. Carnley. Burial was in Evergreen cemetery.

Active pallbearers were: Mayo Prescott, William Prescott, Perry Frank Prescott, Mack Prescott, I. D. Cooper and Marlin Sharpless. Honorary pallbearers included deacons of the Baptist Church, Hayes Funeral Home had charge of arrangements.

RECEIVES PROMOTION TO 2ND LIEUTENANT

Port Benning, Ga., July 7.—Wallace A. Wagenbreth, of Elba, Ala., was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army today upon successful completion of the Officer Candidate course at the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Lt. Wagenbreth is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clark of Elba.

The new lieutenant entered in the Army on May 11, 1939, and served with the 15th Infantry and 322nd Infantry before going to Officer Candidate School three months ago.

At the Infantry School, world's largest institution of its kind, the local officer took a three month's course in it to him for his new responsibilities. The course covers the technique of handling all the modern infantry weapons and the tactics of leading small infantry units in combat. It also includes study of many varied subjects which future officers must know along the lines of administration, military law, etc.

The men who attend the Officer Candidate Schools are the best privates, corporals and sergeants from the entire army, selected by their superiors for outstanding intelligence and qualities of leadership. During the course even the militarily incapable are weeded out, so that the men who graduate with commissions are America's finest soldiers, fully qualified to be leaders in our new army.

More Pork

when hogs are kept on sanitary concrete

A sure way to increase your pork production is to keep pigs on concrete from farrowing to market time. One farmer who does this reports: "My first crop is gone to market by the time the second is farrowing... average weights around 275 pounds at six months... 100 pounds of pork with 300 pounds of feed."

Hog floors are only one of many improvements that will make your farm more efficient and productive. A new barn floor, poultry house, milk house, milk cooling tank, manure pit or watering trough costs little to build with concrete and will last a lifetime. Concrete form jobs require a minimum of critical work materials. Many jobs need just a few bags of cement, and some sand and gravel or stone. If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or building material dealer. Let us send you free "how-to-build" booklets.

HARRIS ANNUAL 4TH OF JULY REUNION

Despite the war, gas and rainy weather, the annual family reunion and barbecue at the Harris family home of Mr. M. M. Harris, of Elba, and a large crowd attended.

Of course we weren't expecting all the children nor grandchildren to be there, for some of them couldn't possibly get there. Neither of the four grandsons in the armed forces were present because they were too far away to come. Those in the service are: Sgt. Charles D. Harris, Nashville, Tenn.; Sgt. Brenton B. Harris, of Camp Polk, La., brothers in the Army; Carey Harris, Alaska, and Gavin Harris, somewhere in Australia, brothers in the Navy.

All the children were present except Mrs. J. P. Roberts, of Thomaston, Ga. Those present were: Mr. B. W. Harris and family, of Beatrice, Ala.; Mr. D. L. Harris and family, of Brundidge, Ala.; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Harris, of Elba, and Mrs. Graydon Flowers, of Elba.

The family and neighbors gathered early Sunday morning. Some loitered under the big shady oak trees gossiping and others sat on the porch telling each other what had happened since the last Fourth of July, while still others visited the barbecue pit to see and sample the delicious meat that was cooking.

About 12 o'clock we spread the dinner that the neighbors had brought and the barbecue and tubs of food on long tables under a big oak tree. Mr. M. Harris asked the blessing, after which everybody fell to and enjoyed a most delicious meal.

That afternoon everyone was so full and lazy we just sat around and talked until time to go home. I'm sure everyone had a most enjoyable time and we are hoping for many more barbecues in the future, but also hoping that by next fourth of July all our boys can be home from the Service to enjoy it and that we will have a more settled and peaceful world to live in.

FEEDING WORMY PIGS WASTES COSTLY FEED

The common intestinal roundworm, one of the most insidious parasites of pigs, causes digestive trouble, retards growth and development and in other ways brings about the well being of the pigs.

The best prevention against these worms is cleanliness, according to W. H. Gregory, extension livestock specialist. The old familiar hog wallow is a paradise for worms and should not be used. However, even with the best of care, pigs will get worms sometimes and should be treated.

The phenothiazine treatment can be given to the pigs in the form of a capsule or tablet and by mixing with the feed. Phenothiazine is available at local drug stores.

If the housewife has to do the gardening, sharp cutting edges well coated with oil or grease will do a clean, quick job. Sharpen cutting tools after each use and they will be ready for the next job.

GOD ENCOURAGES MOSES

Encouragement is something much needed, and not too often given. The word means to put some new thing into the heart of another, that is, to hearten and assure him, especially in the bearing of a heavy responsibility.

Moses, in all probability the world's greatest military and national leader, was about to lead his people out from under the mighty hand of Pharaoh. His task was to lead that people out of Egypt and into the land of promise. He was to lead them out of Egypt and into the land of promise. He was to lead them out of Egypt and into the land of promise.

Possibly it was the mistake Moses had made and which caused him to be sent into the back of the desert that now caused him to move with-
I. Understandable Caution (Exod. 13:18).

There is something remarkably fine about real humility. It comes from a true knowledge of the proper attitude of a mortal being, particularly in the face of spiritual responsibility.

Nether God nor man dares entrust a high and difficult commission to a foolish man who arrogantly trusts in where angels fear to tread. He is a man who is full of unbelief and unbelief is almost a certain indication that he is not the man to assume it.

Moses' request for God's backing must have been acceptable to Him, for He gave Moses—
II. Unfettered Authority (13:14-19).

Moses' request for God's backing must have been acceptable to Him, for He gave Moses—
III. Unjustified Humility (13:14-19).

Perhaps we should not call this humility at all, for in one to divinely called and encouraged it was an act of unbelief and almost imperiousness.

When God calls a man He knows his limitations. Why then should one plead them as an excuse for not serving? The excuse of Moses that he was not a fluent speaker has been the standby of unwilling workers all through the ages.

When asked to lead a prayer meeting, teach a Sunday school class, conduct a young people's meeting, thousands upon thousands have lately thus excused themselves and missed a blessing. The perfect answer of God (v. 11) merits attention. God made your mouth and mine. He gives us the power of speech. He asks not the eloquence of polished rhetorical phrases, or the flights of man's imagination. He wants but the incomparable eloquence of His own words on our lips.

No man should think too highly of himself, but let him beware lest he think too lowly about God. We are not sufficient for the opportunity. But God is more than sufficient.

Having called Moses, God saw to it that Moses went up with His work, even though now He had to call in Moses' older brother to help him. It was, in fact, an unnecessary substitution (13:14-17).

Loving and patient is our God, but mark it well, there is a boundless line to that patience. Moses went too far in his needless humility, and really reflected on the ability of God. God promptly substituted Aaron as the spokesman.

Gracious was He in thus providing a helper for Moses. But one wonders what Moses missed of blessing and power because of his slowness of heart. To decline the labor of the responsibility of service for God means less far greater than we may ever know.

God's dealings with Moses speak eloquently to us of His willingness to enable and use a man who lacked some of the gifts for leadership. Let none of us be like Moses and become involved in needless worry about our gifts, and forget God's purpose and enabling power. When God calls, our gifts are not the controlling factor; in fact, they are not a great factor at all. The question then becomes, is God able? Let us trust and obey Him.

RECEIVES PROMOTION TO 2ND LIEUTENANT

Port Benning, Ga., July 7.—Wallace A. Wagenbreth, of Elba, Ala., was commissioned a second lieutenant in the U. S. Army today upon successful completion of the Officer Candidate course at the Infantry School at Fort Benning, Lt. Wagenbreth is the son-in-law of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Clark of Elba.

The new lieutenant entered in the Army on May 11, 1939, and served with the 15th Infantry and 322nd Infantry before going to Officer Candidate School three months ago.

At the Infantry School, world's largest institution of its kind, the local officer took a three month's course in it to him for his new responsibilities. The course covers the technique of handling all the modern infantry weapons and the tactics of leading small infantry units in combat. It also includes study of many varied subjects which future officers must know along the lines of administration, military law, etc.

The men who attend the Officer Candidate Schools are the best privates, corporals and sergeants from the entire army, selected by their superiors for outstanding intelligence and qualities of leadership. During the course even the militarily incapable are weeded out, so that the men who graduate with commissions are America's finest soldiers, fully qualified to be leaders in our new army.

When renewing elastic in a garment pin the new elastic to the old and as the old is pulled out the new is pulled in.

A sure way to increase your pork production is to keep pigs on concrete from farrowing to market time. One farmer who does this reports: "My first crop is gone to market by the time the second is farrowing... average weights around 275 pounds at six months... 100 pounds of pork with 300 pounds of feed."

Hog floors are only one of many improvements that will make your farm more efficient and productive. A new barn floor, poultry house, milk house, milk cooling tank, manure pit or watering trough costs little to build with concrete and will last a lifetime. Concrete form jobs require a minimum of critical work materials. Many jobs need just a few bags of cement, and some sand and gravel or stone. If you need help, get in touch with your concrete contractor or building material dealer. Let us send you free "how-to-build" booklets.
